

FMG Newsletter-June 2022

Interview Series: MC12 and Beyond

The Friends of Multilateralism Group (FMG) has conducted one-on-one interviews with visiting ministers, journalists, parliamentarians, business, NGOs representatives and FMG members during and after MC12 to listen to their insights about what MC12 outcomes, the challenges ahead for the multilateral trading system, and how the WTO should be reformed on the way forward.

- 01. June 12: Jörgen Warborn
- 02. June 13: Pascal Kerneis
- 03. June 13: Lisa Schroeter
- 04. June 15: John W.H. Denton AO
- 05. June 22: DDG Anabel González
- 06. June 22: Wayne McCook
- 07. June 23: Alice Tipping
- 08. June 24: Clemens Boonekamp
- 09. June 21: Jonathan Fried
- 10. June 23: Jayashree Watal
- 11. June 22: Victor Do Prado
- 12. June 21: Hamid Mamdouh
- 13. June 24: Sherry Stephenson
- 14. June 24: Ram Etwareea
- 15. June 30: Stuart Harbinson

Other Events:

- June 30: FMG Dialogue with Key Capitals (Brussels)
- June 24: FMG Internal Briefing on Sidley DS Proposals
- June 12: FMG Brainstorming Dinner with EP Delegates
- June 7: FMG Internal Session on IPEF

Latest Publications:

- A glimmer of hope for improved US-China trade relations (Wendy Cutler)
- WTO makes progress but could do more for women (Cecilia Malmström)
- How did the Ministerial Conference do? Our scorecards (Peter Ungphakorn)
- From green rooms to red carpet: How WTO members defied the odds and delivered at MC12 (Pradeep S Mehta)
- Emergent digital fragmentation: The perils of unilateralism (Simon Evenett)
- Setting the Record Straight: Correcting Misleading Empirical Evidence and Other Errors About the Moratorium on Customs Duties on Electronic Transmissions (Simon Evenett)

Website:

<https://fmg-geneva.org/>

YouTube Channel:

FMG Geneva

Email:

info@fmg-geneva.org;

leilani_guo525@163.com